PALM BEACH, Fla., April 5.—This marked the final week of the resort festivities here, with the closing of the Beach Club for the season early in the week. Although the Breakers closes in a few days, a number of the cottages will not be relinquished for some time yet. Palm Beach has a spring appeal that winter residents are beginning to appreciate and the tendency will be a yearly increase in the April cottage colony.

This has proved a record season for Palm Beach real estate. H. S. Kelsey, of Boaton, and H. S. Bond, of Hartford, Conn., are the largest purchasers, having bought property valued at fully $500,000. Early in the season a tract of 28,000 acres of Everglades and hammock land was acquired by Mr. Kelsey, who will establish model farms and otherwise develop the tract. Early in the week these men secured another.

But Many Remain.

The visit of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Taft to Augusta is now only a pleasant memory, for they left last week, much to the regret of their many friends here. Work has commenced on the pretentious villa of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury, which will cost $300,000, and will be occupied by the Philadelphians early next season. J. S. Phipps is also contemplating building on the ocean front. William Prime has signed contracts for an Italian villa, while Theodore Frelinghuysen, Gurnee and Charles Munn and Frank O. Butler will return to new homes next year.

New York Blizzard Extends Miami Season For Winter Resorters

Special Correspondence
MIAMI, Fla., April 5.—Although this is the last week of the resort season here, hundreds of Northerners have decided to remain in Miami for a few weeks longer. This has been especially true since they learned of the spring blizzard in Manhattan. There were nearly two hundred guests at the Royal Palm when it closed its season Tuesday morning. A majority of these sojourners scattered to the Halcyon, Urmey, San Carlos, Plaza and leading hotels planning to remain open for some little time yet.

Commodore E. C. Benedict left early in the week with a party, of friends for an extended cruise to Nassau, Havana and other points, Commodore Benedict passed the winter, at Cocoanut Grove, where he leased a house.

Cape Florida, which has long been a rendezvous for Miami anglers, was purchased this week by James Deering, who has a $4,000,000 estate directly across Biscayne Bay from this point. The island on which Cape Florida is situated represents several hundred acres with a thick growth of cocoanut palms. It is thought Mr. Deering will erect a clubhouse for the entertainment of his friends,

An ideal climate can be enjoyed here for two months yet.

New York arrivals at the Hotel Alcazar include Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bush. John G. Faulkner, George W. Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Wickman, of Buffalo.

Mrs. John Donald Macleman, of New York, who has been at the Bayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Scribner and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Fairchild left this week for New York after a fortnight at the Ponce de Leon. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hoadley Crane and Henry M. Crane, of New York departed on the same train for their country home on Long Island. Mr. and Mrs Richard Delafield are here for their annual visit, going hater to Tuxedo Park, N. Y., where they will open their house for the spring season.

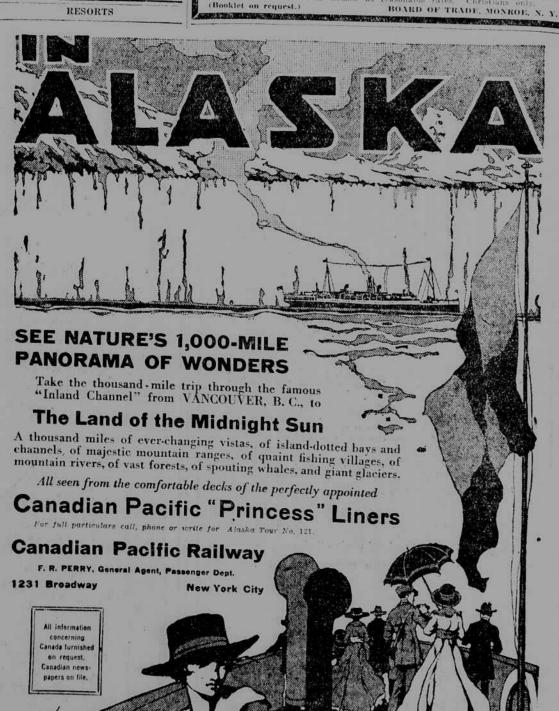

Mr. Auchineloss, is in Europe with the New York, who has been at the Ponce de Leon since the opening day, has gone to White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grant Geddes and Donald G. Geddes, jr., are at the New York, who spent some weeks at the Alcazar, were joined to-day by their son Donald McVickar, who respectively. Mrs. Howard Whitney and Miss Carol M. Whitney came down to play golf and rest.
